The Gospel according to St. Luke

Chapter Six

What does Jesus have to say about the Sabbath? Why is this important?

What does He do on the Sabbath? Why do others confront Him about it?

Is there any significance to Jesus calling the disciples?

What are the "beatitudes" and "woes"? To whom is Jesus telling these things?

What is Jesus' attitude towards His enemies? What does He tell us to do in regards to our enemies and others in general?

What does Jesus say about judgement in this chapter?
